Note to Graduating Seniors

If you are planning to graduate this Spring or Summer, please take a look at the information found on the ETX Website page, “A Note to Graduating Seniors”: http://etox.ucdavis.edu/student/undergraduate/graduating-seniors/. Remember to meet with your faculty advisor to sign-off on your Restricted Electives and also ask the Deans Office to do a Preliminary Degree Check when you are within two quarters of graduation.
ETX 120 - “Perspectives in Aquatic Toxicology”

Winter Quarter, 2015
Tues. & Thurs. from 12:10 - 2:00 p.m.
Room 1135 Meyer
4 units (Lecture/Discussion)
CRN# 94549

This core Environmental Toxicology course covers the environmental and biological fates of toxic substances in marine and freshwater systems. The course focuses on the effects of aquatic contaminants on marine organisms, with emphasis on cellular biochemistry, physiology, and genetics. Special topics include current concerns, contaminant transport, and efforts to approach issues of aquatic toxicology within evolutionary and ecological contexts.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 8B, 118B or 128B, Biological Sciences 1A, or consent of instructor.
Instructors: Professors Gary Cherr, Ron Tjeerdema, and Andrew Whitehead.
ETX Majors: ETX 120 can count towards your Environmental Toxicology Depth Subject Matter or Restricted Electives.

Mentorship for Undergraduate Research in Agriculture, Letters and Science (MURALS) Program

Are you interested in engaging in undergraduate research? Then the Mentorship for Undergraduate Research in Agriculture, Letters and Science (MURALS) Program may be for you. MURALS is a pre-graduate opportunity program designed to enrich the research experience of students situationally disadvantaged in their access to graduate school; MURALS includes students from all academic disciplines, including mathematics, biological sciences, and physical sciences.

For more information, visit: http://success.ucdavis.edu/programs/murals/index.html

If you think this program is for you, then please make an appointment to meet with Raynell Hamilton, MURALS Coordinator, rthamilton@ucdavis.edu. Raynell is located in 116 South Hall.

The Emergency Medicine Research Associates Program (EMRAP)
Informational Meeting: Thursday November 6th from 7-8 pm in Olson 227.
Application Opens: Monday November 3rd
Deadline: November 3rd to Friday November 14, 2014 by 11:59pm
When: Winter and Spring 2015
Where: UC Davis Medical Center

EMRAP is recruiting for Winter Quarter 2014! This is a great opportunity for those who want experience in both emergency medicine and clinical research! Research Associates (RAs) identify ER patients who are eligible for studies, and complete various activities to assist in enrolling them, including consenting patients, taking information directly from patients, and chart extraction through electronic medical records. This is a unique opportunity for undergraduates to observe and learn emergency department (ED) operations and protocols, as well as interact with physicians, students, nurses, and research faculty and staff.

A consecutive two-quarter commitment (Winter and Spring) for EMRAP is required. Course credit is offered to first quarter RAs (EMR92/192), varying between 2-4 units depending on your level of commitment. All first quarter RAs are required to attend a weekly lecture at the UC Davis Medical Center on Tuesdays from 4-6 pm during Fall Quarter. These lectures will serve as your orientation to the program.

TO APPLY: Our application can be on our website below or at the link: http://goo.gl/Y71SgZ

Getting Transcript Notation for Internships

Want Transcript Notation (TN) for your internship? Want TN for doing research with a professor? Many students who participate in internships or research at UC Davis are not aware they can receive Transcript Notation (TN). The Internship & Career Center offers Transcript Notation to students who work at an approved and supervised internship for at least 40 hours per quarter. With just a bit of online paperwork, you can have your internship title, location and quarter taken noted on your official UC Davis transcript.

Instructions on how to file TN online: http://iccweb.ucdavis.edu/pdf/2011AJLStudentTN.pdf
Want academic units instead? See http://iccweb.ucdavis.edu/students/AcademicCredit.htm
