

On-Campus Student Communities

Middle Eastern/South Asian Community

https://issuu.com/ucdavisadmissions/docs/culturalguide_middleeastsouthasia

Location: Student Community Center

The Middle Eastern & South Asian community is unique in its diversity and breadth. The Cross Cultural Center has been a safe space for the community to expand and flourish on campus. With the addition of the two positions, we have been able to reach out and solidify our presence in the greater UC Davis campus, through programs such as the ME/SA Leadership Retreat and ME/SA Community Week.

Center for Chicanx/Latinx Academic Student Success

Location: 2nd floor Memorial Union

<https://cclass.ucdavis.edu/>

CCLASS provides academic, social, and personal support. The core mission is to provide an academic support space where students can thrive as scholars and unique individuals. Some of their services are academic advising, professional development, and a community space.

Center for African Diaspora Student Success

<https://cadss.ucdavis.edu/>

Location: South Silo, Room 270

The Center for African Diaspora Student Success (CADSS) provides tools and resources that support students' developmental transformation, empowering them to maximize their potential and positively impact the UC Davis campus.

Native American Academic Student Success Center

<https://naasc.ucdavis.edu/>

Location: University House (near Dutton hall)
NAASC provides opportunities for campus and local Native communities to build connections to address social, cultural, historical and political issues Indigenous communities face. Native American Culture Days honors the cultures, traditions, contributions and hemispheric unity of Indigenous people of the Americas.

Asian American/Pacific Islander Community

<https://ccc.ucdavis.edu/community-resources>

The Asian American/Pacific Islander (AA/PI) Community on the UC Davis campus is a vast and diverse collection of narratives and experiences. Comprising of about 40% of the student population, creating an umbrella for approximately 140 nation and nation state, as well as 14 Pacific Island origins. Various student organizations, academic departments, student affairs departments, and counseling services were created to serve the community within its diversity and as a larger whole.

Cross Cultural Center (CCC)

<http://ccc.ucdavis.edu/>

Phone: 530-752-4287

Email: ccc@ucdavis.edu

The UC Davis Cross Cultural Center provides a culturally relevant community space where student voices can be expressed and respected. The CCC offers study spaces and volunteer opportunities for all students.

Services for International Students & Scholars

<http://siss.ucdavis.edu>

Location: 3rd floor of the International Center
SISS assists incoming and current international students and scholars, and their families with visa and immigration issues while they are at UC Davis. In addition to preparing the necessary documents to apply for a U.S. visa, SISS assists international students and scholars in maintaining their legal status while in the United States. SISS also provides orientation, assistance, information, and referral to international students, faculty, and researchers regarding financial, personal, cultural, and academic concerns.

Educational Opportunity Program (EOP)

<https://opportunity.ucdavis.edu/programs/eop>

Location: EOP Cottage

Hours: M-R 9am-6pm, F 9am-3pm

The Educational Opportunity Program Information Office is committed to serving the student body at UC Davis. We strive to maintain a climate of academic excellence and maximize retention by providing academic, personal and social support and peer counseling.

